Commitment	6 meetings/year; 40 hrs/year
Reports to:	Volunteer Steering Committee Chair

CFA UK benefits from the support of a volunteer community of 430 industry professionals and CFA UK members in all aspects of its work – advocacy, education and continuous learning. The impact of our volunteer community is significant and makes a positive difference to the Society, our membership and the wider profession.

The CFA UK Volunteer Steering Committee have been tasked by the Board to lead and govern volunteering within the Society in a way that effectively and efficiently serves the needs of individual members and the Society as a whole.

Now in its second year of operation, the VSC are looking to grow their committee and recruit new members who will bring a new perspective on volunteering and how it can benefit the wider membership.

Purpose and Activities

As a Member your role would be to:

- Oversee and continually review the impact of volunteering at CFA UK
- Make connections with the wider volunteer community to ensure governance is embedded across the whole volunteer community.
- Be key in developing engaging volunteer events and networking opportunities
- Network with the volunteer community to bring back volunteer feedback directly to the VSC
- Provide strategic leadership and direction to CFA UK's volunteering objectives
- Work with the Staffed Office and Volunteer Team to ensure effective and efficient delivery of an excellent volunteer experience.
- Attend at least four out of six meetings in a year, ideally in person.

Who are we looking for?

- Members with experience of volunteering at CFA UK or in other professional bodies
- Members with an understanding of the importance of providing a good volunteer experience
- Members with an interest in membership engagement through volunteering
- Individuals who enjoy networking and would be willing to build relationships throughout the volunteer community
- Individuals who enjoy thinking creatively to bring solutions

What will you gain from volunteering in this role?

- Make a difference to CFA UK's member engagement
- Be part of developing a strong volunteering offer to our membership
- Gain insight into the inner workings of a governing Steering Committee
- Build your profile by being part of the CFA UK volunteer network
