University Outreach Volunteer

CFA UK endorse the IMC and CFA exam to universities in the UK. We offer IMC scholarships to students. CFA UK want to engage with the students in a more face to face way by bringing a practitioner to present on their experience in the finance industry.

As a University Outreach Volunteer, you can bring to life your career journey in the finance industry and promote the impact the IMC and/or CFA qualifications have had along with the importance of bringing stronger ethics and professionalism to the investment industry.

The activities:

- Creation of your career journey in presentation form (examples provided)
- Attend and present at least one University in the year
- Post presentation Q&A with students and faculty members

Who we are looking for:

- Anyone undertaking or qualified in the IMC
- CFA Candidates or CFA charter holders
- Currently looking for members to support University visits from October –January

What you will gain:

- Opportunity to influence the next generation of Investment professional
- Improved presentation skills
- Networking with Investment/Finance Academics
- Put your Employee Volunteering days to good use
- All travel costs and subsistence costs are covered by CFA UK
