

Register your interest to volunteer

No of new member volunteers	Various
Timeframe	Between July 2019 – June 2020
Commitment	Varying
Reports to:	Content Steering Committee

CFA UK are preparing for an exciting year ahead for our 2019/20 membership year. The Content Steering Committee have agreed that the following working groups need to be formed for the new year to continue a stream of great content for the membership.

If you are interested in registering your interest in applying to any of the working groups below when they go live, please email volunteer@cfauk.org and let us know. As the roles go live, you will be notified to apply.

Working Group	Volunteers needed	Commitment
Soft Skills working group to provide interesting and stimulating events, webinars and online content that help members to develop soft skills they need to succeed in their careers	3	Jul19 – Jun20
Career Opportunities working group to provide interesting and stimulating events and online content that helps our members understand the range of career opportunities they have	3	Jul19 – Jun20
Behavioural Finance working group to bring greater understanding of this subject through a variety of webinars and online content sharing to our membership.	4-6	Jul19 – Jun20
ESG events working group to put on a selection of engaging events for the year ahead creating an ESG story line for our membership to follow, including the sharing of topical articles and other relevant content.	3	Jul19 – Jun20
Fintech working groups to put on a diverse array of events for the year ahead for our membership to learn from and enjoy, including the sharing of topical articles and other relevant content. It is hoped to focus on 3 streams: Crypto & Blockchain, AI and Machine Learning and a Fintech Forum	4 per stream	Fintech Forum Jul19 – Apr20 Other streams Jul19 – Jun20

Author Series working group to identify books and authors that fit the interests and continuing education needs of CFA UK's membership, leading to the creation of interesting and stimulating events, webinars and content that engage members and help them to develop their knowledge.	3	Jul19 – Jun20
---	-----------------	-----------------------------