

Working group member: CFA UK Ethics Challenge

No of new member volunteers	3-4
Timeframe	June 19 – December 19
Commitment	40 hours
Reports to:	Ethics Committees

The Ethics Challenge is a global competition undertaken by many of the CFA Societies across the world. It is an opportunity for investment professionals to present their views of a particular case highlighting the ethical challenges facing investment professionals.

For CFA UK, this is the first time the Challenge will be run in the UK. We are looking to recruit a small group of member volunteers to plan and deliver the competition focussing on engaging groups from investment firms. A judging panel will then determine the winning team.

Purpose and activities:

- The volunteers will plan and organise the Challenge which will include identification of:
 - Appropriate case study and supporting material
 - Suitable partner firms to pilot this event
 - An appropriate judging panel for the Challenge

Who are we looking for?

- Availability between June and December for meetings and driving the Challenge forward
- Ability to work with a group to shape ideas, plan and organise
- Volunteers who would be willing connect with investment firms to promote the challenge

What you will gain:

- Build your profile within the CFA UK network of volunteers, the wider membership and the industry
- Develop leadership, communication and team work skills
- Recognition for your contribution in shaping and delivering services to the membership
- Opportunity to meet and network with other like-minded investment professionals
- Volunteering brings a “shared experience” amongst peers that has long lasting benefits for your career

If you are interested in applying for this opportunity, please download the Volunteer Application form and return it along with a copy of your CV to volunteer@cfauk.org

Deadline for applications: 3 July 2019
